BAAs and PRDAs
What are they?

- BAAs and PRDAs are vehicles for procuring basic and applied research at the Air Force Research Laboratory (AFRL)

Broad Agency Announcements (BAAs)

- BAAs are used for research and exploratory development in broadly stated areas of scientific study and experimentation directed towards advancing the state of the art - NOT related to a specific weapon system or hardware development.

Program Research and Development Announcements (PRDAs)

- PRDAs are intended for use when the area of interest is more specialized but still has general application and is associated with the needs of a program or programs, but not system specific

Web Addresses

- To see a list of AFRL's BAAs and PRDAs, go to:
- http://www.if.afrl.af.mil/div/IFK/baa/
- Click on either BAA or PRDA
- Scroll down through the BAAs or PRDAs to view all current hypertext titles

Web Addresses cont'd

- On this page is AFRL's…
  - BAA and PRDA Guide for Industry which explains the BAA/PRDA process
  - Proposal Preparation Instructions, once you are requested to send in a proposal.

BAA/PRDA Process

- An announcement is posted in the FedBizOps requesting interested offerors to submit a white paper.
- White papers are generally less than 5 pages and contain a short technical description and the bottomline cost broken into the cost and any fee/profit.

BAA/PRDA Process (con't)

- Govn't evaluates the white paper iaw the evaluation criteria stated in the announcement.
- The selected offeror(s) are requested to submit a technical and cost proposal.
- A letter is sent to those offeror's detailing what is needed in the proposals.

BAA/PRDA Process (con't)

- A request to submit a proposal does not guarantee an award.
- Award is dependent upon a sound proposal and successful negotiations.
- This process may differ slightly in each announcement so be sure to read the entire announcement.

Contacts

- Feel free to contact the Program Manager directly with your technical or budgeting questions - phone numbers and email addresses are listed in each announcement.
